

Evening Prayer

Wednesday in Holy Week

I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel; my heart teaches me, night after night. I have set the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not fall.

Psalm 16:7,8

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter

BCP p. 117

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

O Gracious Light

O gracious light, pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven, O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed! Now as we come to the setting of the sun, and our eyes behold the vesper light, we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, O Son of God, O Giver of Life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Psalm 74

BCP p. 689

O God, why have you utterly cast us off? *
 why is your wrath so hot against the sheep of your pasture?
 Remember your congregation that you purchased long ago, *
 the tribe you redeemed to be your inheritance, and Mount Zion where you dwell.
 Turn your steps toward the endless ruins; *
 the enemy has laid waste everything in your sanctuary.
 Your adversaries roared in your holy place; *
 they set up their banners as tokens of victory.
 They were like men coming up with axes to a grove of trees; *
 they broke down all your carved work with hatchets and hammers.
 They set fire to your holy place; *
 they defiled the dwelling-place of your Name and razed it to the ground.
 They said to themselves, "Let us destroy them altogether." *
 They burned down all the meeting-places of God in the land.
 There are no signs for us to see; there is no prophet left; *
 there is not one among us who knows how long.
 How long, O God, will the adversary scoff? *
 will the enemy blaspheme your Name for ever?
 Why do you draw back your hand? *
 why is your right hand hidden in your bosom?
 Yet God is my King from ancient times, *
 victorious in the midst of the earth.
 You divided the sea by your might *
 and shattered the heads of the dragons upon the waters;
 You crushed the heads of Leviathan *
 and gave him to the people of the desert for food.
 You split open spring and torrent; *
 you dried up ever-flowing rivers.
 Yours is the day, yours also the night; *
 you established the moon and the sun.
 You fixed all the boundaries of the earth; *
 you made both summer and winter.
 Remember, O LORD, how the enemy scoffed, *
 how a foolish people despised your Name.
 Do not hand over the life of your dove to wild beasts; *
 never forget the lives of your poor.
 Look upon your covenant; *
 the dark places of the earth are haunts of violence.
 Let not the oppressed turn away ashamed; *
 let the poor and needy praise your Name.
 Arise, O God, maintain your cause; *
 remember how fools revile you all day long.
 Forget not the clamor of your adversaries, *
 the unending tumult of those who rise up against you.
 Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

2 Cor. 1:23-2:11

A Reading from the Second Letter to the Corinthians.

But I call on God as witness against me: it was to spare you that I did not come again to Corinth. I do not mean to imply that we lord it over your faith; rather, we are workers with you for your joy, because you stand firm in the faith.

So I made up my mind not to make you another painful visit. For if I cause you pain, who is there to make me glad but the one whom I have pained? And I wrote as I did, so that when I came, I might not suffer pain from those who should have made me rejoice; for I am confident about all of you, that my joy would be the joy of all of you. For I wrote you out of much distress and anguish of heart and with many tears, not to cause you pain, but to let you know the abundant love that I have for you.

But if anyone has caused pain, he has caused it not to me, but to some extent—not to exaggerate it—to all of you. This punishment by the majority is enough for such a person; so now instead you should forgive and console him, so that he may not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. So I urge you to reaffirm your love for him. I wrote for this reason: to test you and to know whether you are obedient in everything. Anyone whom you forgive, I also forgive. What I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ. And we do this so that we may not be outwitted by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his designs.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom BCP p. 102

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine: Glory to God from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.
