

Evening Prayer

Monday after the Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

Jesus said, "I am the light of the world; whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

John 8:12

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter

BCP p. 117

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia.

O Gracious Light

O gracious light, pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven, O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed! Now as we come to the setting of the sun, and our eyes behold the vesper light, we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, O Son of God, O Giver of Life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Psalm 77

BCP p. 693

I will cry aloud to God; *
 I will cry aloud, and he will hear me.
 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord; *
 my hands were stretched out by night and did not tire; I refused to be comforted.
 I think of God, I am restless, *
 I ponder, and my spirit faints.
 You will not let my eyelids close; *
 I am troubled and I cannot speak.
 I consider the days of old; *
 I remember the years long past;
 I commune with my heart in the night; *
 I ponder and search my mind.
 Will the Lord cast me off for ever? *
 will he no more show his favor?
 Has his loving-kindness come to an end for ever? *
 has his promise failed for evermore?
 Has God forgotten to be gracious? *
 has he, in his anger, withheld his compassion?
 And I said, "My grief is this: *
 the right hand of the Most High has lost its power."
 I will remember the works of the LORD, *
 and call to mind your wonders of old time.
 I will meditate on all your acts *
 and ponder your mighty deeds.
 Your way, O God, is holy; *
 who is so great a god as our God?
 You are the God who works wonders *
 and have declared your power among the peoples.
 By your strength you have redeemed your people, *
 the children of Jacob and Joseph.
 The waters saw you, O God; the waters saw you and trembled; *
 the very depths were shaken.
 The clouds poured out water; the skies thundered; *
 your arrows flashed to and fro;
 The sound of your thunder was in the whirlwind; your lightnings lit up the world; *
 the earth trembled and shook.
 Your way was in the sea, and your paths in the great waters, *
 yet your footsteps were not seen.
 You led your people like a flock *
 by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 79

BCP p. 701

O God, the heathen have come into your inheritance; they have profaned your holy temple; *
 they have made Jerusalem a heap of rubble.
 They have given the bodies of your servants as food for the birds of the air, * and the flesh of your faithful ones to the beasts of the field.
 They have shed their blood like water on every side of Jerusalem, *
 and there was no one to bury them.
 We have become a reproach to our neighbors, *
 an object of scorn and derision to those around us.

How long will you be angry, O LORD? *
 will your fury blaze like fire for ever?
 Pour out your wrath upon the heathen who have not known you * and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon your Name.
 For they have devoured Jacob * and made his dwelling a ruin.
 Remember not our past sins; let your compassion be swift to meet us; *
 for we have been brought very low.
 Help us, O God our Savior, for the glory of your Name; *
 deliver us and forgive us our sins, for your Name's sake.
 Why should the heathen say, "Where is their God?" *
 Let it be known among the heathen and in our sight that you avenge the shedding of your servants' blood.
 Let the sorrowful sighing of the prisoners come before you, *
 and by your great might spare those who are condemned to die.
 May the revilings with which they reviled you, O Lord, *
 return seven-fold into their bosoms.
 For we are your people and the sheep of your pasture; *
 we will give you thanks for ever and show forth your praise from age to age.
 Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lesson

Acts 2:37-47

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?" Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him." And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

8. The Song of Moses

Exodus 15:1-6, 11-13, 17-18

I will sing to the Lord, for he is lofty and uplifted; *
 the horse and its rider has he hurled into the sea.
 The Lord is my strength and my refuge; *
 the Lord has become my Savior.
 This is my God and I will praise him, *
 the God of my people and I will exalt him.
 The Lord is a mighty warrior; *
 Yahweh is his Name.
 The chariots of Pharaoh and his army has he hurled into the sea; *
 the finest of those who bear armor have been drowned in the Red Sea.
 The fathomless deep has overwhelmed them; *
 they sank into the depths like a stone.
 Your right hand, O Lord, is glorious in might; *
 your right hand, O Lord, has overthrown the enemy.
 Who can be compared with you, O Lord, among the gods? *
 who is like you, glorious in holiness, awesome in renown, and worker of wonders?
 You stretched forth your right hand; *
 the earth swallowed them up.
 With your constant love you led the people you redeemed; *
 with your might you brought them in safety to your holy dwelling.
 You will bring them in and plant them *
 on the mount of your possession,
 The resting-place you have made for yourself, O Lord, *
 the sanctuary, O Lord, that your hand has established.
 The Lord shall reign *
 for ever and for ever.
 Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

BCP p. 96

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers

Officiant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

BCP p. 102

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.
