

Evening Prayer

Monday after the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

It is not ourselves that we proclaim; we proclaim Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants, for Jesus' sake. For the same God who said, "Out of darkness let light shine," has caused his light to shine within us, to give the light of revelation—the revelation of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter

BCP p. 117

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia.

O Gracious Light

O gracious light, pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven, O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed! Now as we come to the setting of the sun, and our eyes behold the vesper light, we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, O Son of God, O Giver of Life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Psalm 9

BCP p. 593

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with my whole heart; *
 I will tell of all your marvelous works.
 I will be glad and rejoice in you; *
 I will sing to your Name, O Most High.
 When my enemies are driven back, *
 they will stumble and perish at your presence.
 For you have maintained my right and my cause; *
 you sit upon your throne judging right.
 You have rebuked the ungodly and destroyed the wicked; *
 you have blotted out their name for ever and ever.
 As for the enemy, they are finished, in perpetual ruin, *
 their cities plowed under, the memory of them perished;
 But the LORD is enthroned for ever; *
 he has set up this throne for judgment.
 It is he who rules the world with righteousness; *
 he judges the peoples with equity.
 The LORD will be a refuge for the oppressed, *
 a refuge in time of trouble.
 Those who know your Name will put their trust in you, *
 for you never forsake those who seek you, O LORD.
 Sing praise to the LORD who dwells in Zion; *
 proclaim to the peoples the things he has done.
 The Avenger of blood will remember them; *
 he will not forget the cry of the afflicted.
 Have pity on me, O LORD; *
 see the misery I suffer from those who hate me, O you who lift me up from the gate of death;
 So that I may tell of all your praises and rejoice in your salvation * in the gates of the city of Zion.
 The ungodly have fallen into the pit they dug, *
 and in the snare they set is their own foot caught.
 The LORD is known by his acts of justice; *
 the wicked are trapped in the works of their own hands.
 The wicked shall be given over to the grave, *
 and also all the people that forget God.
 For the needy shall not always be forgotten, *
 and the hope of the poor shall not perish for ever.
 Rise up, O LORD, let not the ungodly have the upper hand; *
 let them be judged before you.
 Put fear upon them, O LORD; *
 let the ungodly know they are but mortal.

Psalm 15

BCP p. 599

LORD, who may dwell in your tabernacle? *
 who may abide upon your holy hill?
 Whoever leads a blameless life and does what is right, *
 who speaks the truth from his heart.
 There is no guile upon his tongue; he does no evil to his friend; *
 he does not heap contempt upon his neighbor.
 In his sight the wicked is rejected, *
 but he honors those who fear the LORD.

He has sworn to do no wrong *
and does not take back his word.
He does not give his money in hope of gain, *
nor does he take a bribe against the innocent.
Whoever does these things * shall never be overthrown.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lesson

Mark 1:29-45

A Reading from the Gospel According to Mark.

As soon as they left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him. In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. And Simon and his companions hunted for him. When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is searching for you." He answered, "Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do." And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

A leper came to him begging him, and kneeling he said to him, "If you choose, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him, "I do choose. Be made clean!" Immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. After sternly warning him he sent him away at once, saying to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them." But he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the word, so that Jesus could no longer go into a town openly, but stayed out in the country; and people came to him from every quarter.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

8. The Song of Moses

Exodus 15:1-6, 11-13, 17-18

I will sing to the Lord, for he is lofty and uplifted; *
the horse and its rider has he hurled into the sea.
The Lord is my strength and my refuge; *
the Lord has become my Savior.
This is my God and I will praise him, *
the God of my people and I will exalt him.

The Lord is a mighty warrior; *
Yahweh is his Name.
The chariots of Pharaoh and his army has he hurled into the sea; *
the finest of those who bear armor have been drowned in the Red Sea.
The fathomless deep has overwhelmed them; *
they sank into the depths like a stone.
Your right hand, O Lord, is glorious in might; *
your right hand, O Lord, has overthrown the enemy.
Who can be compared with you, O Lord, among the gods? *
who is like you, glorious in holiness, awesome in renown, and worker of wonders?
You stretched forth your right hand; *
the earth swallowed them up.
With your constant love you led the people you redeemed; *
with your might you brought them in safety to your holy dwelling.
You will bring them in and plant them *
on the mount of your possession,
The resting-place you have made for yourself, O Lord, *
the sanctuary, O Lord, that your hand has established.
The Lord shall reign *
for ever and for ever.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

BCP p. 102

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine: Glory to him from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.
