

Evening Prayer

Tuesday after the Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

Let my prayer be set forth in your sight as incense, the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

Psalm 141:2

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter

BCP p. 117

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia.

O Gracious Light

O gracious light, pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven, O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed! Now as we come to the setting of the sun, and our eyes behold the vesper light, we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, O Son of God, O Giver of Life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Psalm 68

BCP p. 676

Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered; *
 let those who hate him flee before him.
 Let them vanish like smoke when the wind drives it away; *
 as the wax melts at the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
 But let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God; *
 let them also be merry and joyful.
 Sing to God, sing praises to his Name; exalt him who rides upon the heavens; *
 YAHWEH is his Name, rejoice before him!
 Father of orphans, defender of widows, *
 God in his holy habitation!
 God gives the solitary a home and brings forth prisoners into freedom; *
 but the rebels shall live in dry places.
 O God, when you went forth before your people, *
 when you marched through the wilderness,
 The earth shook, and the skies poured down rain, at the presence of God, the God of Sinai, *
 at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
 You sent a gracious rain, O God, upon your inheritance; *
 you refreshed the land when it was weary.
 Your people found their home in it; *
 in your goodness, O God, you have made provision for the poor.
 The Lord gave the word; *
 great was the company of women who bore the tidings:
 "Kings with their armies are fleeing away; *
 the women at home are dividing the spoils."
 Though you lingered among the sheepfolds, *
 you shall be like a dove whose wings are covered with silver, whose feathers are like green gold.
 When the Almighty scattered kings, *
 it was like snow falling in Zalmon.
 O mighty mountain, O hill of Bashan! *
 O rugged mountain, O hill of Bashan!
 Why do you look with envy, O rugged mountain, at the hill which God chose for his resting place? *
 truly, the LORD will dwell there for ever.
 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of thousands; *
 the Lord comes in holiness from Sinai.
 You have gone up on high and led captivity captive; you have received gifts even from your enemies, *
 that the LORD God might dwell among them.
 Blessed be the Lord day by day, *
 the God of our salvation, who bears our burdens.
 He is our God, the God of our salvation; *
 God is the LORD, by whom we escape death.
 [God shall crush the heads of his enemies, *
 and the hairy scalp of those who go on still in their wickedness.
 The Lord has said, "I will bring them back from Bashan; *
 I will bring them back from the depths of the sea;
 That your foot may be dipped in blood, *
 the tongues of your dogs in the blood of your enemies."]
 They see your procession, O God, *
 your procession into the sanctuary, my God and my King.

The singers go before, musicians follow after, *
 in the midst of maidens playing upon the hand-drums.
 Bless God in the congregation; *
 bless the LORD, you that are of the fountain of Israel.
 There is Benjamin, least of the tribes, at the head; the princes of Judah in a company; *
 and the princes of Zebulon and Naphtali.
 Send forth your strength, O God; *
 establish, O God, what you have wrought for us.
 Kings shall bring gifts to you, *
 for your temple's sake at Jerusalem.
 Rebuke the wild beast of the reeds, *
 and the peoples, a herd of wild bulls with its calves.
 Trample down those who lust after silver; *
 scatter the peoples that delight in war.
 Let tribute be brought out of Egypt; *
 let Ethiopia stretch out her hands to God.
 Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth; *
 sing praises to the Lord.
 He rides in the heavens, the ancient heavens; *
 he sends forth his voice, his mighty voice.
 Ascribe power to God; *
 his majesty is over Israel; his strength is in the skies.
 How wonderful is God in his holy places! *
 the God of Israel giving strength and power to his people! Blessed be God!
 Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lesson

Rom. 16:17-27

A Reading from the Letter to the Romans.

I urge you, brothers and sisters, to keep an eye on those who cause dissensions and offenses, in opposition to the teaching that you have learned; avoid them. For such people do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the simple-minded. For while your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, I want you to be wise in what is good and guileless in what is evil. The God of peace will shortly crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Timothy, my co-worker, greets you; so do Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my relatives. I Tertius, the writer of this letter, greet you in the Lord. Gaius, who is host to me and to the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the city treasurer, and our brother Quartus, greet you.

Now to God who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that was kept secret for long ages but is now disclosed, and through the prophetic writings is made known to all the Gentiles, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith— to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever! Amen.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

10. The Second Song of Isaiah

Isaiah 55:6-11

Seek the Lord while he wills to be found; *
call upon him when he draws near.
Let the wicked forsake their ways *
and the evil ones their thoughts;
And let them turn to the Lord, and he will have compassion, *
and to our God, for he will richly pardon.
For my thoughts are not your thoughts, *
nor your ways my ways, says the Lord.
For as the heavens are higher than the earth, *
so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.
For as rain and snow fall from the heavens *
and return not again, but water the earth, Bringing forth life and giving growth, *
seed for sowing and bread for eating,
So is my word that goes forth from my mouth; *
it will not return to me empty;
But it will accomplish that which I have purposed, *
and prosper in that for which I sent it.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

BCP p. 102

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.
