

Evening Prayer

Wednesday after Trinity Sunday

I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel; my heart teaches me, night after night. I have set the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not fall.

Psalm 16:7,8

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter

BCP p. 117

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia.

O Gracious Light

O gracious light, pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven, O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed! Now as we come to the setting of the sun, and our eyes behold the vesper light, we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, O Son of God, O Giver of Life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Psalm 49

BCP p. 652

Hear this, all you peoples; hearken, all you who dwell in the world, *
 you of high degree and low, rich and poor together.
 My mouth shall speak of wisdom, *
 and my heart shall meditate on understanding.
 I will incline my ear to a proverb *
 and set forth my riddle upon the harp.
 Why should I be afraid in evil days, *
 when the wickedness of those at my heels surrounds me,
 The wickedness of those who put their trust in their goods, *
 and boast of their great riches?
 We can never ransom ourselves, *
 or deliver to God the price of our life;
 For the ransom of our life is so great, *
 that we should never have enough to pay it,
 In order to live for ever and ever, *
 and never see the grave.
 For we see that the wise die also; like the dull and stupid they perish *
 and leave their wealth to those who come after them.
 Their graves shall be their homes for ever, their dwelling places from generation to generation, *
 though they call the lands after their own names.
 Even though honored, they cannot live for ever; *
 they are like the beasts that perish.
 Such is the way of those who foolishly trust in themselves, *
 and the end of those who delight in their own words.
 Like a flock of sheep they are destined to die; Death is their shepherd; *
 they go down straightway to the grave.
 Their form shall waste away, *
 and the land of the dead shall be their home.
 But God will ransom my life; *
 he will snatch me from the grasp of death.
 Do not be envious when some become rich, *
 or when the grandeur of their house increases;
 For they will carry nothing away at their death, *
 nor will their grandeur follow them.
 Though they thought highly of themselves while they lived, *
 and were praised for their success,
 They shall join the company of their forebears, *
 who will never see the light again.
 Those who are honored, but have no understanding, *
 are like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 53

BCP p. 658

The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." *
 All are corrupt and commit abominable acts; there is none who does any good.
 God looks down from heaven upon us all, *
 to see if there is any who is wise, if there is one who seeks after God.
 Every one has proved faithless; all alike have turned bad; *
 there is none who does good; no, not one.
 Have they no knowledge, those evildoers *
 who eat up my people like bread and do not call upon God?

See how greatly they tremble, such trembling as never was; *
for God has scattered the bones of the enemy; they are put to shame, because God has rejected them.

Oh, that Israel's deliverance would come out of Zion! *
when God restores the fortunes of his people Jacob will rejoice and Israel be glad.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lesson

Gal. 2:11-21

A Reading from the Letter to the Galatians.

But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood self-condemned; for until certain people came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles. But after they came, he drew back and kept himself separate for fear of the circumcision faction. And the other Jews joined him in this hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. But when I saw that they were not acting consistently with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, "If you, though a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?" We ourselves are Jews by birth and not Gentile sinners; yet we know that a person is justified not by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ. And we have come to believe in Christ Jesus, so that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by doing the works of the law, because no one will be justified by the works of the law. But if, in our effort to be justified in Christ, we ourselves have been found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! But if I build up again the very things that I once tore down, then I demonstrate that I am a transgressor. For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. I do not nullify the grace of God; for if justification comes through the law, then Christ died for nothing.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Apostles' Creed

BCP p. 96

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the holy catholic Church,

the communion of saints,

the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body,

and the life everlasting. Amen.

People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
