

Evening Prayer

Wednesday after the Third Sunday after Pentecost

It is not ourselves that we proclaim; we proclaim Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants, for Jesus' sake. For the same God who said, "Out of darkness let light shine," has caused his light to shine within us, to give the light of revelation—the revelation of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter

BCP p. 117

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia.

O Gracious Light

O gracious light, pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven, O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed! Now as we come to the setting of the sun, and our eyes behold the vesper light, we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, O Son of God, O Giver of Life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Psalm 81

BCP p. 704

Sing with joy to God our strength *
 and raise a loud shout to the God of Jacob.
 Raise a song and sound the timbrel, *
 the merry harp, and the lyre.
 Blow the ram's-horn at the new moon, *
 and at the full moon, the day of our feast.
 For this is a statute for Israel, *
 a law of the God of Jacob.
 He laid it as a solemn charge upon Joseph, *
 when he came out of the land of Egypt.
 I heard an unfamiliar voice saying, *
 "I eased his shoulder from the burden; his hands were set free from bearing the load."
 You called on me in trouble, and I saved you; *
 I answered you from the secret place of thunder and tested you at the waters of Meribah.
 Hear, O my people, and I will admonish you: *
 O Israel, if you would but listen to me!
 There shall be no strange god among you; *
 you shall not worship a foreign god.
 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and said, *
 "Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it."
 And yet my people did not hear my voice, *
 and Israel would not obey me.
 So I gave them over to the stubbornness of their hearts, *
 to follow their own devices.
 Oh, that my people would listen to me! *
 that Israel would walk in my ways!
 I should soon subdue their enemies *
 and turn my hand against their foes.
 Those who hate the LORD would cringe before him, *
 and their punishment would last for ever.
 But Israel would I feed with the finest wheat *
 and satisfy him with honey from the rock.

Psalm 82

BCP p. 705

God takes his stand in the council of heaven; *
 he gives judgment in the midst of the gods:
 "How long will you judge unjustly, *
 and show favor to the wicked?
 Save the weak and the orphan; *
 defend the humble and needy;
 Rescue the weak and the poor; *
 deliver them from the power of the wicked.
 They do not know, neither do they understand; they go about in darkness; *
 all the foundations of the earth are shaken.
 Now I say to you, 'You are gods, *
 and all of you children of the Most High;
 Nevertheless, you shall die like mortals, *
 and fall like any prince.'"

Arise, O God, and rule the earth, *
 for you shall take all nations for your own.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lesson

Rom. 1:28-2:11

A Reading from the Letter to the Romans.

And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind and to things that should not be done. They were filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, covetousness, malice. Full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, craftiness, they are gossips, slanderers, God-haters, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, rebellious toward parents, foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless. They know God's decree, that those who practice such things deserve to die—yet they not only do them but even applaud others who practice them.

Therefore you have no excuse, whoever you are, when you judge others; for in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, are doing the very same things. You say, "We know that God's judgment on those who do such things is in accordance with truth." Do you imagine, whoever you are, that when you judge those who do such things and yet do them yourself, you will escape the judgment of God? Or do you despise the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience? Do you not realize that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? But by your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. For he will repay according to each one's deeds: to those who by patiently doing good seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; while for those who are self-seeking and who obey not the truth but wickedness, there will be wrath and fury. There will be anguish and distress for everyone who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Doxology

Let us glorify the Lord: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.
In the firmament of his power, glorify the Lord, *
praise him and highly exalt him for ever.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
