

Evening Prayer

Friday after the Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Seek him who made the Pleiades and Orion, and turns deep darkness into the morning, and darkens the day into night; who calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out upon the surface of the earth: The Lord is his name.

Amos 5:8

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter

BCP p. 117

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia.

O Gracious Light

O gracious light, pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven, O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed! Now as we come to the setting of the sun, and our eyes behold the vesper light, we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, O Son of God, O Giver of Life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Fight those who fight me, O LORD; *
 attack those who are attacking me.
 Take up shield and armor *
 and rise up to help me.
 Draw the sword and bar the way against those who pursue me; *
 say to my soul, "I am your salvation."
 Let those who seek after my life be shamed and humbled; *
 let those who plot my ruin fall back and be dismayed.
 Let them be like chaff before the wind, *
 and let the angel of the LORD drive them away.
 Let their way be dark and slippery, *
 and let the angel of the LORD pursue them.
 For they have secretly spread a net for me without a cause; *
 without a cause they have dug a pit to take me alive.
 Let ruin come upon them unawares; *
 let them be caught in the net they hid; let them fall into the pit they dug.
 Then I will be joyful in the LORD; *
 I will glory in his victory.
 My very bones will say, "LORD, who is like you? *
 You deliver the poor from those who are too strong for them, the poor and needy from those who rob them."
 Malicious witnesses rise up against me; *
 they charge me with matters I know nothing about.
 They pay me evil in exchange for good; *
 my soul is full of despair.
 But when they were sick I dressed in sack-cloth * and humbled myself by fasting.
 I prayed with my whole heart, as one would for a friend or a brother; *
 I behaved like one who mourns for his mother, bowed down and grieving.
 But when I stumbled, they were glad and gathered together; they gathered against me; *
 strangers whom I did not know tore me to pieces and would not stop.
 They put me to the test and mocked me; *
 they gnashed at me with their teeth.
 O Lord, how long will you look on? *
 rescue me from the roaring beasts, and my life from the young lions.
 I will give you thanks in the great congregation; *
 I will praise you in the mighty throng.
 Do not let my treacherous foes rejoice over me, *
 nor let those who hate me without a cause wink at each other.
 For they do not plan for peace, *
 but invent deceitful schemes against the quiet in the land.
 They opened their mouths at me and said, *
 "Aha! we saw it with our own eyes."
 You saw it, O LORD; do not be silent; *
 O Lord, be not far from me.
 Awake, arise, to my cause! *
 to my defense, my God and my Lord!
 Give me justice, O LORD my God, according to your righteousness; *
 do not let them triumph over me.

Do not let them say in their hearts, "Aha! just what we want!" *

Do not let them say, "We have swallowed him up."

Let all who rejoice at my ruin be ashamed and disgraced; *

let those who boast against me be clothed with dismay and shame.

Let those who favor my cause sing out with joy and be glad; *

let them say always, "Great is the LORD, who desires the prosperity of his servant."

And my tongue shall be talking of your righteousness * and of your praise all the day long.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *

as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lesson

Acts 13:13-25

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Then Paul and his companions set sail from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia. John, however, left them and returned to Jerusalem; but they went on from Perga and came to Antioch in Pisidia. And on the sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down. After the reading of the law and the prophets, the officials of the synagogue sent them a message, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, give it." So Paul stood up and with a gesture began to speak: "You Israelites, and others who fear God, listen. The God of this people Israel chose our ancestors and made the people great during their stay in the land of Egypt, and with uplifted arm he led them out of it. For about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness. After he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land as an inheritance for about four hundred fifty years. After that he gave them judges until the time of the prophet Samuel. Then they asked for a king; and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, who reigned for forty years. When he had removed him, he made David their king. In his testimony about him he said, 'I have found David, son of Jesse, to be a man after my heart, who will carry out all my wishes.' Of this man's posterity God has brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus, as he promised; before his coming John had already proclaimed a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. And as John was finishing his work, he said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. No, but one is coming after me; I am not worthy to untie the thong of the sandals on his feet.'"

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

13. A Song of Praise

Song of the Three Young Men, 29-34

Glory to you, Lord God of our fathers; *

you are worthy of praise; glory to you.

Glory to you for the radiance of your holy Name; *

we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Glory to you in the splendor of your temple; *

on the throne of your majesty, glory to you.

Glory to you, seated between the Cherubim; *

we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

Glory to you, beholding the depths; *
in the high vault of heaven, glory to you.
Glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; *
we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

The Apostles' Creed

BCP p. 96

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers

Officiant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Officiant Let us pray.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of your Name; increase in us true religion; nourish us with all goodness; and bring forth in us the fruit of good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Collect for Fridays

Lord Jesus Christ, by your death you took away the sting of death: Grant to us your servants so to follow in faith where you have led the way, that we may at length fall asleep peacefully in you and wake up in your likeness; for your tender mercies' sake. Amen.

A Prayer for Mission

O God, you manifest in your servants the signs of your presence: Send forth upon us the spirit of love, that in companionship with one another your abounding grace may increase among us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

BCP p. 102

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine:
Glory to God from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.
