

Evening Prayer

Wednesday after the Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:2

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter

BCP p. 117

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia.

O Gracious Light

O gracious light, pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven, O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed! Now as we come to the setting of the sun, and our eyes behold the vesper light, we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, O Son of God, O Giver of Life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Psalms 49

BCP p. 652

Hear this, all you peoples; hearken, all you who dwell in the world, *
 you of high degree and low, rich and poor together.
 My mouth shall speak of wisdom, *
 and my heart shall meditate on understanding.
 I will incline my ear to a proverb *
 and set forth my riddle upon the harp.
 Why should I be afraid in evil days, *
 when the wickedness of those at my heels surrounds me,
 The wickedness of those who put their trust in their goods, *
 and boast of their great riches?
 We can never ransom ourselves, *
 or deliver to God the price of our life;
 For the ransom of our life is so great, *
 that we should never have enough to pay it,
 In order to live for ever and ever, *
 and never see the grave.
 For we see that the wise die also; like the dull and stupid they perish *
 and leave their wealth to those who come after them.
 Their graves shall be their homes for ever, their dwelling places from generation to generation, *
 though they call the lands after their own names.
 Even though honored, they cannot live for ever; *
 they are like the beasts that perish.
 Such is the way of those who foolishly trust in themselves, *
 and the end of those who delight in their own words.
 Like a flock of sheep they are destined to die; Death is their shepherd; *
 they go down straightway to the grave.
 Their form shall waste away, *
 and the land of the dead shall be their home.
 But God will ransom my life; *
 he will snatch me from the grasp of death.
 Do not be envious when some become rich, *
 or when the grandeur of their house increases;
 For they will carry nothing away at their death, *
 nor will their grandeur follow them.
 Though they thought highly of themselves while they lived, *
 and were praised for their success,
 They shall join the company of their forebears, *
 who will never see the light again.
 Those who are honored, but have no understanding, *
 are like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 53

BCP p. 658

The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." *
 All are corrupt and commit abominable acts; there is none who does any good.
 God looks down from heaven upon us all, *
 to see if there is any who is wise, if there is one who seeks after God.
 Every one has proved faithless; all alike have turned bad; *
 there is none who does good; no, not one.
 Have they no knowledge, those evildoers *
 who eat up my people like bread and do not call upon God?

See how greatly they tremble, such trembling as never was; *
for God has scattered the bones of the enemy; they are put to shame, because God has rejected them.
Oh, that Israel's deliverance would come out of Zion! *
when God restores the fortunes of his people Jacob will rejoice and Israel be glad.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

The First Lesson Acts 14:19-28

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

But Jews came there from Antioch and Iconium and won over the crowds. Then they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead. But when the disciples surrounded him, he got up and went into the city. The next day he went on with Barnabas to Derbe. After they had proclaimed the good news to that city and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, then on to Iconium and Antioch. There they strengthened the souls of the disciples and encouraged them to continue in the faith, saying, "It is through many persecutions that we must enter the kingdom of God." And after they had appointed elders for them in each church, with prayer and fasting they entrusted them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe. Then they passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia. When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. From there they sailed back to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work that they had completed. When they arrived, they called the church together and related all that God had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith for the Gentiles. And they stayed there with the disciples for some time.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Apostles' Creed

BCP p. 96

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,

as we forgive those
who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
