

Evening Prayer

Thursday after the Thirteenth Sunday after Pentecost

I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel; my heart teaches me, night after night. I have set the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not fall.

Psalm 16:7,8

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter

BCP p. 117

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia.

O Gracious Light

O gracious light, pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven, O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed! Now as we come to the setting of the sun, and our eyes behold the vesper light, we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, O Son of God, O Giver of Life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Psalm 59

BCP p. 665

Rescue me from my enemies, O God; *
 protect me from those who rise up against me.
 Rescue me from evildoers *
 and save me from those who thirst for my blood.
 See how they lie in wait for my life, how the mighty gather together against me; *
 not for any offense or fault of mine, O LORD.
 Not because of any guilt of mine *
 they run and prepare themselves for battle.
 Rouse yourself, come to my side, and see; *
 for you, LORD God of hosts, are Israel's God.
 Awake, and punish all the ungodly; *
 show no mercy to those who are faithless and evil.
 They go to and fro in the evening; *
 they snarl like dogs and run about the city.
 Behold, they boast with their mouths, and taunts are on their lips; *
 "For who," they say, "will hear us?"
 But you, O LORD, you laugh at them; *
 you laugh all the ungodly to scorn.
 My eyes are fixed on you, O my Strength; *
 for you, O God, are my stronghold.
 My merciful God comes to meet me; *
 God will let me look in triumph on my enemies.
 Slay them, O God, lest my people forget; *
 send them reeling by your might and put them down, O Lord our shield.
 For the sins of their mouths, for the words of their lips, for the cursing and lies that they utter, *
 let them be caught in their pride.
 Make an end of them in your wrath; *
 make an end of them, and they shall be no more.
 Let everyone know that God rules in Jacob, *
 and to the ends of the earth.
 They go to and fro in the evening; *
 they snarl like dogs and run about the city.
 They forage for food, *
 and if they are not filled, they howl.
 For my part, I will sing of your strength; *
 I will celebrate your love in the morning;
 For you have become my stronghold, *
 a refuge in the day of my trouble.
 To you, O my Strength, will I sing; *
 for you, O God, are my stronghold and my merciful God.

Psalm 60

BCP p. 667

O God, you have cast us off and broken us; *
 you have been angry; oh, take us back to you again.
 You have shaken the earth and split it open; *
 repair the cracks in it, for it totters.
 You have made your people know hardship; *
 you have given us wine that makes us stagger.
 You have set up a banner for those who fear you, *
 to be a refuge from the power of the bow.

Save us by your right hand and answer us, *
that those who are dear to you may be delivered.
God spoke from his holy place and said: *
“I will exult and parcel out Shechem; I will divide the valley of Succoth.
Gilead is mine and Manasseh is mine; *
Ephraim is my helmet and Judah my scepter.
Moab is my wash-basin, on Edom I throw down my sandal to claim it, *
and over Philistia will I shout in triumph.”
Who will lead me into the strong city? *
who will bring me to Edom?
Have you not cast us off, O God? *
you no longer go out, O God, with our armies.
Grant us your help against the enemy, *
for vain is the help of man.
With God we will do valiant deeds, *
and he shall tread our enemies under foot.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lesson

Matt. 2:13-23

A Reading from the Gospel According to Matthew.

Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him.” Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother by night, and went to Egypt, and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet, “Out of Egypt I have called my son.”

When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, he was infuriated, and he sent and killed all the children in and around Bethlehem who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had learned from the wise men. Then was fulfilled what had been spoken through the prophet Jeremiah: “A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be consoled, because they are no more.”

When Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child’s life are dead.” Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. But when he heard that Archelaus was ruling over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And after being warned in a dream, he went away to the district of Galilee. There he made his home in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, “He will be called a Nazorean.”

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

11. The Third Song of Isaiah Isaiah 60:1-3, 11a, 14c, 18-19

Arise, shine, for your light has come, *
and the glory of the Lord has dawned upon you.
For behold, darkness covers the land; *
deep gloom enshrouds the peoples.
But over you the Lord will rise, *
and his glory will appear upon you.
Nations will stream to your light, *
and kings to the brightness of your dawning.
Your gates will always be open; *
by day or night they will never be shut.
They will call you, The City of the Lord, *
The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
Violence will no more be heard in your land, *
ruin or destruction within your borders.
You will call your walls, Salvation, *
and all your portals, Praise.
The sun will no more be your light by day; *
by night you will not need the brightness of the moon.
The Lord will be your everlasting light, *
and your God will be your glory.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
