

Evening Prayer

Friday after the Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Let my prayer be set forth in your sight as incense, the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

Psalm 141:2

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter

BCP p. 117

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia.

O Gracious Light

O gracious light, pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven, O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed! Now as we come to the setting of the sun, and our eyes behold the vesper light, we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, O Son of God, O Giver of Life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Psalm 51

BCP p. 656

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving-kindness; *
 in your great compassion blot out my offenses.
 Wash me through and through from my wickedness *
 and cleanse me from my sin.
 For I know my transgressions, *
 and my sin is ever before me.
 Against you only have I sinned *
 and done what is evil in your sight.
 And so you are justified when you speak *
 and upright in your judgment.
 Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth, *
 a sinner from my mother's womb.
 For behold, you look for truth deep within me, *
 and will make me understand wisdom secretly.
 Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure; *
 wash me, and I shall be clean indeed.
 Make me hear of joy and gladness, *
 that the body you have broken may rejoice.
 Hide your face from my sins *
 and blot out all my iniquities.
 Create in me a clean heart, O God, *
 and renew a right spirit within me.
 Cast me not away from your presence *
 and take not your holy Spirit from me.
 Give me the joy of your saving help again *
 and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit.
 I shall teach your ways to the wicked, *
 and sinners shall return to you.
 Deliver me from death, O God, *
 and my tongue shall sing of your righteousness, O God of my salvation.
 Open my lips, O Lord, *
 and my mouth shall proclaim your praise.
 Had you desired it, I would have offered sacrifice, *
 but you take no delight in burnt-offerings.
 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit; *
 a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.
 Be favorable and gracious to Zion, *
 and rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
 Then you will be pleased with the appointed sacrifices, with burnt-offerings and oblations; *
 then shall they offer young bullocks upon your altar.
 Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lesson

Acts 15:12-21

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

The whole assembly kept silence, and listened to Barnabas and Paul as they told of all the signs and wonders that God had done through them among the Gentiles. After they finished speaking, James replied, "My brothers, listen to me. Simeon has related how God first looked favorably on the Gentiles, to take from among them a people for his name. This agrees with the words of the prophets, as it is written, After this I will return, and I will rebuild the dwelling of David, which has fallen; from its ruins I will rebuild it, and I will set it up, so that all other peoples may seek the Lord— even all the Gentiles over whom my name has been called. Thus says the Lord, who has been making these things known from long ago.’ Therefore I have reached the decision that we should not trouble those Gentiles who are turning to God, but we should write to them to abstain only from things polluted by idols and from fornication and from whatever has been strangled and from blood. For in every city, for generations past, Moses has had those who proclaim him, for he has been read aloud every sabbath in the synagogues.”

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

13. A Song of Praise Song of the Three Young Men, 29-34

Glory to you, Lord God of our fathers; *
you are worthy of praise; glory to you.
Glory to you for the radiance of your holy Name; *
we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.
Glory to you in the splendor of your temple; *
on the throne of your majesty, glory to you.
Glory to you, seated between the Cherubim; *
we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.
Glory to you, beholding the depths; *
in the high vault of heaven, glory to you.
Glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; *
we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.
