

Evening Prayer

Monday after the Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost

I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel; my heart teaches me, night after night. I have set the Lord always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not fall.

Psalm 16:7,8

Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Invitatory and Psalter

BCP p. 117

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.
Alleluia.

O Gracious Light

O gracious light, pure brightness of the everliving Father in heaven, O Jesus Christ, holy and blessed! Now as we come to the setting of the sun, and our eyes behold the vesper light, we sing your praises, O God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. You are worthy at all times to be praised by happy voices, O Son of God, O Giver of Life, and to be glorified through all the worlds.

Psalm 89: Part II

BCP p. 715

You spoke once in vision and said to your faithful people: *
 "I have set the crown upon a warrior and have exalted one chosen out of the people.
I have found David my servant; *
 with my holy oil have I anointed him.
My hand will hold him fast *
 and my arm will make him strong.
No enemy shall deceive him, *
 nor any wicked man bring him down.
I will crush his foes before him *
 and strike down those who hate him.
My faithfulness and love shall be with him, *
 and he shall be victorious through my Name.
I shall make his dominion extend * from the Great Sea to the River.
He will say to me, 'You are my Father, *
 my God, and the rock of my salvation.'
I will make him my firstborn *
 and higher than the kings of the earth.
I will keep my love for him for ever, *
 and my covenant will stand firm for him.
I will establish his line for ever *
 and his throne as the days of heaven."
"If his children forsake my law *
 and do not walk according to my judgments;
If they break my statutes *
 and do not keep my commandments;
I will punish their transgressions with a rod *
 and their iniquities with the lash;
But I will not take my love from him, *
 nor let my faithfulness prove false.
I will not break my covenant, *
 nor change what has gone out of my lips.
Once for all I have sworn by my holiness: *
 'I will not lie to David.
His line shall endure for ever *
 and his throne as the sun before me;
It shall stand fast for evermore like the moon, *
 the abiding witness in the sky."
But you have cast off and rejected your anointed; *
 you have become enraged at him.
You have broken your covenant with your servant, *
 defiled his crown, and hurled it to the ground.
You have breached all his walls *
 and laid his strongholds in ruins.
All who pass by despoil him; *
 he has become the scorn of his neighbors.
You have exalted the right hand of his foes *
 and made all his enemies rejoice.
You have turned back the edge of his sword *
 and have not sustained him in battle.

You have put an end to his splendor *
 and cast his throne to the ground.
 You have cut short the days of his youth *
 and have covered him with shame.
 How long will you hide yourself, O LORD? will you hide yourself for ever? *
 how long will your anger burn like fire?
 Remember, LORD, how short life is, *
 how frail you have made all flesh.
 Who can live and not see death? *
 who can save himself from the power of the grave?
 Where, Lord, are your loving-kindnesses of old, *
 which you promised David in your faithfulness?
 Remember, Lord, how your servant is mocked, *
 how I carry in my bosom the taunts of many peoples,
 The taunts your enemies have hurled, O LORD, *
 which they hurled at the heels of your anointed.
 Blessed be the LORD for evermore! *
 Amen, I say, Amen.
 Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lesson

Acts 20:17-38

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

From Miletus he sent a message to Ephesus, asking the elders of the church to meet him. When they came to him, he said to them: "You yourselves know how I lived among you the entire time from the first day that I set foot in Asia, serving the Lord with all humility and with tears, enduring the trials that came to me through the plots of the Jews. I did not shrink from doing anything helpful, proclaiming the message to you and teaching you publicly and from house to house, as I testified to both Jews and Greeks about repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus. And now, as a captive to the Spirit, I am on my way to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there, except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city that imprisonment and persecutions are waiting for me. But I do not count my life of any value to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the good news of God's grace. "And now I know that none of you, among whom I have gone about proclaiming the kingdom, will ever see my face again. Therefore I declare to you this day that I am not responsible for the blood of any of you, for I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole purpose of God. Keep watch over yourselves and over all the flock, of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God that he obtained with the blood of his own Son. I know that after I have gone, savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. Some even from your own group will come distorting the truth in order to entice the disciples to follow them. Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night or day to warn everyone with tears. And now I commend you to God and to the message of his grace, a message that is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all who are sanctified. I coveted no one's silver or gold or clothing. You know for yourselves that I worked with my own hands to support myself and my companions. In all this I have given you an example that by such work we must support the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, for he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive."

When he had finished speaking, he knelt down with them all and prayed. There was much weeping among them all; they embraced Paul and kissed him, grieving especially because of what he had said, that they would not see him again. Then they brought him to the ship.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

8. The Song of Moses Exodus 15:1-6, 11-13, 17-18

I will sing to the Lord, for he is lofty and uplifted; *
the horse and its rider has he hurled into the sea.
The Lord is my strength and my refuge; *
the Lord has become my Savior.
This is my God and I will praise him, *
the God of my people and I will exalt him.
The Lord is a mighty warrior; *
Yahweh is his Name.
The chariots of Pharaoh and his army has he hurled into the sea; *
the finest of those who bear armor have been drowned in the Red Sea.
The fathomless deep has overwhelmed them; *
they sank into the depths like a stone.
Your right hand, O Lord, is glorious in might; *
your right hand, O Lord, has overthrown the enemy.
Who can be compared with you, O Lord, among the gods? *
who is like you, glorious in holiness, awesome in renown, and worker of wonders?
You stretched forth your right hand; *
the earth swallowed them up.
With your constant love you led the people you redeemed; *
with your might you brought them in safety to your holy dwelling.
You will bring them in and plant them *
on the mount of your possession,
The resting-place you have made for yourself, O Lord, *
the sanctuary, O Lord, that your hand has established.
The Lord shall reign *
for ever and for ever.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,

BCP p. 102

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.
